

Would I go on a date with you?

How willing are you to meet someone from OkCupid in person?

Totally willing!

Hesitant, but I'd certainly consider it.

I'm not interested in meeting in person.

About how long do you want your next relationship to last?

Regardless of future plans, what's more interesting to you right now?

Several years

The rest of my life

One night

A few months to a year

True love

Sex

Say you've started seeing someone you really like. As far as you're concerned, how long will it take before you have sex?

Could you date someone who does drugs?

6 or more dates

1-2 dates

3-5 dates

Only after the wedding

No

Yes, but only soft stuff like marijuana

Yes

Sure!

If you're paying

No thanks!
